

Prepare

Preparation can make all the difference when planning the consenting process or changes in policy and plans.

Our experienced and highly-regarded planners can work with you or your clients to scope, prepare and present plans, policy and applications under the RMA at all levels, from councils to the courts.

Boffa Miskell is a leading professional services consultancy with integrated expertise in planning and resource management, urban design, landscape architecture, ecology, biosecurity, cultural advisory and GIS services.
